15. The Weight (Mordechai)

NOTE: Recorded in C.... this is a change.

Sittin' by the palace gate, was feelin' about half past dead I just heard some news, the kind that all Jews dread Our people they are goners, then a thought came to my head I can ask the queen for help, but "No" was all she said

And, and, and you can see, you can see your destiny

You might think you're safe but the palace ain't a place to hide Cuz I know Haman and his henchman they won't be denied So now Queen Esther, you must act like a Jew Speakin' out for your folks, stop behaving like a shrew

Make the right choice Esther
Can't you hear my plea
Make the right choice Esther
And, and, and you can see, you can see your destiny

Go down like Moses, see the king and have your say
Go tell your ma-an that you're living life the Jewish way
Esther my queen, I just know the king will see
He'll say, "Thanks for the favor girl now I'm gonna save you and your family."

Make the right choice Esther
Can't you hear my plea
Make the right choice Esther
And, and, and you can see, you can see your destiny
